Benchmark and corporate action information

Some performance differences between the fund and the benchmark may arise because the fund performance is calculated at a different valuation point from the benchmark. The Schroder ISF Japanese Large Cap fund was launched in December 2006 to accommodate a transfer of shareholders from the Schroder Japan Fund Unit Trust (launched on May 1994) to the Schroder ISF SICAV. On 02.04.2012 Schroder ISF Japanese Large Cap changed its name to Schroder ISF Japanese Opportunities. On 29.03.2012 the Tokyo Stock Exchange 1st Section Index (TOPIX) (TR) replaced the FTSE Japan. The full track record of the previous index has been kept and chainlinked to the new one. The fund's performance should be assessed against its target benchmark being to exceed the Tokyo Stock Exchange 1st Section Index (TOPIX) (TR). The fund's investment universe is expected to overlap materially with the components of the target benchmark. The investment manager invests on a discretionary basis and there are no restrictions on the extent to which the fund's portfolio and performance may deviate from the target benchmark. The investment manager will invest in companies or sectors not included in the target benchmark in order to take advantage of specific investment opportunities. The target benchmark has been selected because it is representative of the type of investments in which the fund is likely to invest and it is, therefore, an appropriate target in relation to the return that the fund aims to provide.
